

Board of Directors
Of The
Pikes Peak Institute of Music

Bill Callen serves as President of the corporation. He has an M.A. in Music Education; played with the U.S.Army 5th Division Band for three years; was a middle school band educator for 30 years and a church choir director for 25 years. He was co-founder and co-director of the New Horizons Band of the Pikes Peak Region; founder and director of the Pikes Peak New Horizons Band at the Nazarene Bible College; founder and director of the Pikes Peak Home School Band at the Nazarene Bible College, and co-founder and board member of the Friends of the New Horizons Band.

Sam Hall is the corporation's Vice-president. He is the founder of "Play it Again, Sam", a full-service sound studio providing soundtracks for films, TV and radio, as well as slide shows, and has been in this business for 30 years. He has served on the boards of directors for the Colorado Springs Symphony, the Chamber Orchestra of the Springs, the Colorado Springs Chorale and the Colorado Springs Youth Symphony. He plays cornet in the Gold Band.

Cliff Bratten is the Treasurer of the corporation. He holds an M.A. in Economics; is a retired USAF officer with 22 years experience in defense system acquisition, including purchases of F-22 tactical fighter aircraft, Titan IV space launch vehicles and Milstart communications satellites. He is very involved in church activities and serves as treasurer of his homeowners' association. Cliff plays trumpet in both the Gold Band and the Swingmasters Band.

Ward Lott is the corporate secretary. He has a B.S. In Industrial Engineering and is retired from 40 years of data processing activities including: Data Processing manager at M.D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute; co-founder and officer of several data processing businesses and one construction-related business. He was a co-founder of the Friends of the New Horizons Band and served as its secretary for 5 years. He plays cornet in the Gold Band.